Frequently Asked Catering Questions

How do I place my order?

For a pickup order contact the store closest to you
Thousand Oaks (805) 497-7427 or Camarillo (805) 445-4742

For a delivery (30 persons minimum) or full service catering contact (805) 499-1815 or Banditsevents@gmail.com

When do I place my order?

For a pickup order you may call the restaurant same day. For delivery we ask for 48 hour notice and 7 day notice for full service (some exceptions may be available based upon availability).

What is included with my order?

All pick up and delivery orders come with: The food, paper goods, serving utensils, condiments and containers. Full service included all of the above plus chaffing dishes, servers to serve buffet style, linens for buffet tables, set up and clean up.

How does my food stay hot during travel?

All food is transported in hot holding containers which ensure the highest food quality possible when it is delivered to your event.

What if I want a special menu or have dietary concerns?

At Bandits', we want you to be happy. We will custom make a menu that fits your needs and discuss any dietary concerns to provide you with the best available options.

What do you charge for children for delivery or full service events?

For most menus, children 10 and under are charged at half price plus any other taxes and service fees. If you would like to discuss a specific child friendly menu, please contact Bandits' so we may better assist.

What are your service fees?

Since every type of service is distinct, fees will be discussed at time of event booking as they vary upon location, service and more.

Can you tell me more about Bandits' history & catering experience?

Bandits' Grill & Bar was established in 1989. We provide only the highest quality ingredients available to us. Our catering department has catered events varying in size from 40-4000. We will work with you, one on one to be sure you are completely satisfied. Our clients include Bank of America, Amgen, Wellpoint, Los Robles Hospital and much, much more. Bandits' treats every guest as if they were family.
